

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a criminal misuse of the airwaves.

If America stands for nothing else, it should stand for fair elections. Whenever news media cover stories about candidates for public office, they should do so with a profound respect for their countrymen. Political bias has no place in the "news".

If a media company wishes to be respected and trusted, they must earn these adjectives by respecting the populace, and the spirit of a free press in a democracy. Broadcasting questionable information about a candidate is shameful.

If Sinclair goes through with this broadcast I will NEVER WATCH ANY Sinclair related stations again.

Thank you.
